Why is this game getting positive recommendations? Nostalgia? Really? It looks and plays like a student's My First Unity Project and the RNG is just un-fun. This 'game' has absolutely zero redeeming qualities.. Not bad at all.. I would recommend this game BUT with one major proviso - if you want the battles with the various monsters/enemies to be skill based as in Sorcery and/or Warlock do not bother with this one - as it is based on Luck only (IE the roll of a dice ONLY) - otherwise I would recommend playing it for the fun of it, as the challenge lies in finding the artefacts you need to get through the dungeon - IE in deathtrap and its sequel - Trial Of Champions - this will more than likely take you several attempts especially if you choose legends mode where you only get 3 lives.. Not worth bothering with, if you want to see a game book done right check out the Sorcery games.
